ABKC makes registering your dog hassle free. We give each client prompt personal attention. When applying for a color photo registration, you must supply a good quality color photo with your application. If your dog is already registered with another registry and you would like to add it to the ABKC registry, simply send in a copy of your dog's current registration along with the standard fee. ABKC charges no litter registration fees or double transfer fees. The final owner will pay only the standard fee. It is suggested that you register your dog promptly to protect your ownership rights. ABKC provides registration of dogs based on the honesty and integrity of our clients. ABKC accepts no responsibility for fraudulent information submitted by applicant on this form and agrees to all policies and rules governing ABKC and is testifying to the validity of the information supplied. ABKC is a Christian owned and operated business; a portion of all monies received is used to support various Christian Ministries. MAY GOD BLESS YOU. We appreciate your business.

Please list the name of the Sire and Dam below along with their ABKC registration numbers. If they are not currently Registered with ABKC please supply all required signatures. I hereby certify that the information submitted in this form is accurate to the best of my knowledge. All applications, fees and photos submitted become the property of ABKC.
